Request for Consent to Release Information

The community colleges you attend and the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges request your help. We ask that you agree to allow us to release necessary personal information about you to various agencies and organizations so we can do research, plan programs and offer special services to you (such as transfer opportunity information or state financial aid). If you do agree to give your consent, your information will not be sold, used for commercial purposes, released to the public, or given to other government agencies for purposes of determining benefits (other than financial aid), except where specifically required by law. In addition, if you do consent to release of your information, those organizations and agencies to which your information is given are prohibited by law from using it for any unauthorized purpose or releasing it to anyone else. If you do not give your consent, personal information about you will not be shared with other organizations or agencies except where allowed by law. You should also know that answering "no" to this question will not prevent release of certain "directory information" about you. To learn more about directory information or how to block its release, see the Privacy Policy.

I authorize the Chancellor's Office, California Community Colleges, and the community colleges I am attending to release necessary personal information contained in my education records, including my Social Security number, for the purposes described in the Full Statement of Consent.

The screenshot shows the FAFSA website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for Home, About Us, FSA ID (circled in red), Federal Aid.gov, and Help. To the right of these icons is a search bar with a 'SEARCH' button and language options for 'English' and 'Español'. Below the navigation bar is a blue banner with the text 'Get help paying for college' and 'Submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)'. Underneath the banner is a collage of four photos showing diverse college students. Below the photos are two columns of content. The left column is titled 'New to the FAFSA?' and features a green button labeled 'Start A New FAFSA'. The right column is titled 'Returning User?' and lists three bullet points: 'Make a correction', 'Add a school', and 'View your Student Aid Report (SAR), and more'. A green button labeled 'Login' is positioned to the right of the list.

The FSA ID is your electronic passport to federal student aid online.

If you're ready, you can create an FSA ID now.

Students, parents, and borrowers are required to use an FSA ID, made up of a username and password, to access certain U.S. Department of Education websites. Your FSA ID is used to confirm your identity when accessing your financial aid information and electronically signing your federal student aid documents.

If you want to create an FSA ID now, go for it!

Create a New FSA ID

An FSA ID gives you access to Federal Student Aid's online systems and can serve as your legal signature.

Only create an FSA ID using your own personal information and for your own exclusive use. You are not authorized to create an FSA ID on behalf of someone else, including a family member. Misrepresentation of your identity to the federal government could result in criminal or civil penalties.

To create your own personal FSA ID, enter answers for the questions below and select CONTINUE.

Important: When you are done click the CANCEL button to clear your data, even if you did not finish creating your FSA ID. Just closing your browser window or going to another website may not be enough to prevent other people using this computer from seeing your information until the session expires.
